GENERAL PRIVACY NOTICE FOR THE PUBLIC

Your personal data – what is it?

“Personal data” is any information about a living individual which allows them to be identified from that data (for example a name, photographs, videos, email address, or address). Identification can be directly using the data itself or by combining it with other information which helps to identify a living individual.

The processing of personal data is governed by legislation relating to personal data which applies in the European Union and the United Kingdom including the General Data Protection Regulation (the “GDPR”), the Data Protection Act (2018) and other legislation relating to personal data and rights such as the Human Rights Act.

Who are we?

This Privacy Notice is provided to you by Fowlmere Parish Council which is a data controller for your data.

Other data controllers the council works with:

- South Cambridgeshire District Council
- Cambridgeshire County Council
- Community groups
- Charities
- Other not for profit entities
- Contractors

We may need to share your personal data that we hold with them so that they can carry out their responsibilities to the council.

In cases where the other data controllers listed above are processing data on our behalf and under our direct instruction, then they will be classified as a data processor and the council will act as the data controller.

In cases where we and the other data controllers listed above are processing your data jointly for the same purposes, but they are not acting under our direct instruction, then the council and the other data controllers may be “joint data controllers” which mean we are all collectively responsible to you for your data.

Where each of the parties listed above are processing your data for their own independent purposes then each of us will be independently responsible to you and if you have any questions, wish to exercise any of your rights (see below) or wish to raise a complaint, you should do so directly to the relevant data controller.

What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The council is a public authority and has certain powers and obligations. Most of your personal data is processed for compliance with a legal obligation, which includes the discharge of the council's statutory functions and powers. Sometimes when exercising these powers or duties it is necessary to process personal data of residents or people using the council's services. We will always take into account your interests and rights. This Privacy Notice sets out your rights and the council's obligations to you.

We may process personal data if it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract. An example of this would be processing data regarding those we are contracting to assist in delivering services.

We also process a range of personal data through correspondence sent to, or issued by, the council. In cases where this is not being processed as a result of our legal obligations, it will instead be processed on the basis of undertaking a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us as the controller.

Sometimes the use of your personal data requires your consent. In any occasion when we rely on consent as the legal basis we will first obtain your unambiguous consent to that use.

Sharing your personal data

This section provides information about the third parties with whom the council may share your personal data. These third parties have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data. It is likely that we will need to share your data with some or all of the following (but only where necessary):

- The data controllers listed above under the heading "Other data controllers the council works with";
- Our agents, suppliers and contractors. For example, we may ask a commercial provider to publish or distribute newsletters on our behalf, or to maintain our database software;
- On occasion, other local authorities or not for profit bodies with which we are carrying out joint ventures e.g. in relation to facilities or events for the community.

How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so.

We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is currently best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 7 years to support HMRC audits or provide tax information.

We may have legal obligations to retain some data in connection with our statutory obligations as a public authority. The council is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). We will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as we believe it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim.

In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.

Your rights and your personal data

You have the following rights with respect to your personal data:

When exercising any of the rights listed below, in order to process your request, we may need to verify your identity for your security. In such cases we will need you to respond with proof of your identity before you can exercise these rights.

 - If the data we hold on you is out of date, incomplete or incorrect, you can inform us and your data will be updated.

- 4) The right to object to processing of your personal data or to restrict it to certain purposes only
 - You have the right to request that we stop processing your personal data or ask us to restrict processing. Upon receiving the request we will contact you and let you know if we are able to comply or if we have a legal obligation to continue to process your data.

 - You can withdraw your consent easily by telephone, email, or by post (see Contact Details below).

If you wish to exercise any of these rights please contact the Parish Clerk using the details provided at the end of this Privacy Notice.

Where you request information from us we will need to confirm your identity to ensure the security of your data. We will endeavour to respond within 30 days but our response time may vary depending on the complexity of your request. A fee will not normally be charged unless a request is considered to be without basis, repetitive or excessive. Where we request a fee it shall always be reasonable.

Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Privacy Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use prior to commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.
